DETENTION ORDER PENDING SENTENCING

Alternative Findings (B)

- ☐ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ☒ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II— Statement of the Reasons for Detention

I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by ☒ clear and convincing evidence ☐ a preponderance of the evidence that

The defendant poses a risk of harm if released. By defendant's own admission, the defendant was unsuccessfully discharged from his anger management program. After watching the defendant testify, I am convinced he is articulate and intelligent, and he uses those skills in an attempt to "spin" the facts, excuse or explain his misconduct, and manipulate others for his own benefit. He is not credible.

The defendant was required to complete an anger management program due to his past history of aggressive behavior, and the risk that absent treatment, he poses a risk of harm if released. He has been unsuccessfully discharged from that program. He did not receive the benefit of successfully completing counseling, and remains a risk of harm to other.

Defendant's guilty plea has been accepted. Defendant is detained pending sentencing. See 18 USC § 3143.

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
